

SCOTNEY CASTLE

Scotney is not one but two houses in Tunbridge Wells. At the top of the hill is the new house, designed by Anthony Salvin in Elizabethan style and built in 1837 for Edward Hussey III, who took the 'Picturesque' style as his inspiration. At the bottom of the valley are the romantic ruins of a medieval castle and moat.

Wednesday 3rd July 2024

£62.00pp (NT £50.00)

We leave Thomas Road Faversham at 9.00am arriving approx 10.15am. We leave Scotney at 3.00pm