Enjoying breath-taking views across the Cornish coastline in Carbis Bay is Moonbeams, a fabulous, five-bedroom Cottage. You will have your own room and private bathroom. Breakfast if weather is good, will be taken outside over looking the beach.

Offering flexible sleeping arrangements, and several outdoor areas enveloped by sea glimpses, Moonbeams is well-positioned near the beach and a hub of amenities.

If you can tear yourself away from your luxurious abode, head down to the beach to dine at The Beach Club Restaurant, before following the Southwest Coast Path over to St Ives.

Reach a hub of activity people watching along St Ives harbour, tour the St. Ives Museum and the Tate St Ives, enjoy sea vistas at Porthgwidden Beach, or grab your walking boots for a hike up to Clodgy Point.

Bird watchers will relish in the chance to visit the RSPB Hayle Estuary, whilst Penzance Promenade is the perfect place for a bag of fish and chips.

Barbara Hepworth first came to live in Cornwall with her husband Ben Nicholson and their young family at the outbreak of war in 1939. She lived and worked in Trewyn studios – now the Barbara Hepworth Museum – from 1949 until her death in 1975. 'Finding Trewyn Studio was a sort of magic', wrote Hepworth. 'Here was a studio, a yard and garden where I could work in open air and space'.

Most of the bronzes are in the positions in which the artist herself placed them. The garden itself was laid out by Barbara Hepworth with help from a friend, the composer Priaulx Rainier.

Travelling down we will stop overnight in Crewkerne in Haselbury Mill. On route home overnight stop in Winchester town centre in the Winchester Royal. Both with breakfast included.
